

DOCTORAL AND EARLY CAREER CONSORTIUM

Chair: Eddy Ng, Dalhousie University

Friday, September 28, 2012

Location: Dalhousie University, Rowe Building, room 5053

SESSION 1 – 1:30-2:30

ASK THE DEAN – Negotiating your first job and getting hired

This session is intended for doctoral students and junior faculty who are in the job market. Find out about the dos and don'ts during a job talk, including near-term job opportunities, negotiating your first offer, the tenure process, and more. This will be a great opportunity to ask questions you could not or would not ask the dean during the interview. The panel includes deans and directors of business schools from Atlantic Canada.

Panelists: Peggy Cunningham (Dalhousie, Faculty of Management), Pat Bradshaw (Saint Mary's U.), Alan Duncan (U. Prince Edward Island), Greg Hebb (Dalhousie U., School of Business Administration), Tim Hynes (Mount Allison U.)

SESSION 2 – 2:45-3:45

GETTING PUBLISHED – Finishing your dissertation and strategies for getting published

This session is intended to help doctoral students progress towards successful completion of their dissertation. Junior scholars will also learn about strategies on getting published. The panel includes established faculty who serve as journal editors/associate editors, and on editorial boards.

Panelists: Najah Attig (Saint Mary's U.), Todd Boyle (St. Francis Xavier U.), Jim Barker (Dalhousie U.), Jean Helms Mills (Saint Mary's U.), Albert Mills (Saint Mary's U.), Alex Faseruk (Memorial U.)

SESSION 3 – 4:00-5:00

MENTORING AND NETWORKING – Finding a mentor and collaborating on a research team

This session utilizes a speed-dating format to help doctoral students and junior faculty find mentors and collaborators outside their own institutions. Participants will have the opportunity to be paired with research active faculty, while faculty with research projects who are looking to work with doctoral students/junior faculty can explore others' research interests.

Open to all conference attendees. All mid-career and senior faculty are invited to participate along with doctoral students and junior faculty.
